Notes

¹ See list of approved courses in the General Education section of the LSU Catalog.

² Although all Medical Laboratory Science (MLSC) courses are offered online, students may need to take required biology and chemistry courses that are not currently offered online by LSU. Before attempting to take such courses at other universities, students should contact LSU's ASMLS/BSMLS Program Coordinator at 318.473.6466 to determine the transfer equivalency of the courses.

³ Students who have graduated from a NAACLS-accredited MLT/CLT program will be granted full credit (24 hours) for required 1000 and 2000-level medical laboratory science courses.
